

Licking County Foundation names board members

Advocate Staff Report

March 21, 2015

NEWARK – Licking County Foundation’s Governing Committee appointed three new members.

Joining the committee are: Molly Ingold, recently retired as vice president of administrative services with Hospice of Central Ohio; Mike Whitehead, partner in the transactional group at Reese, Pyle, Drake and Meyer; and Noble Snow, a shareholder and with Wilson, Shannon and Snow since 1968.

Members serve without compensation and are dedicated to ensuring that each gift entrusted to Licking County Foundation is used within the donor’s intent to enhance the area’s quality of life.

Volunteers assess charitable needs of the community, distribute grants in response to the needs and donor wishes, and provide guidance to further the foundation’s mission.